

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

A275.28

In 8

cap 2

Biographical Sketches

1951 INTERNATIONAL FARM YOUTH EXCHANGE DELEGATES

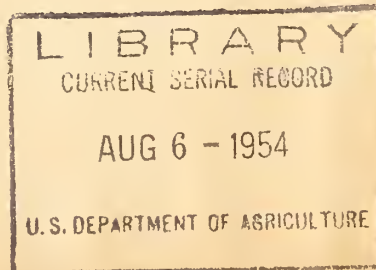

— — — —

ARCHIBALD, Rosemary Ann. R.R. #2, Joliet, Illinois.
School address: 202 E. Green Street, Champaign, Illinois.
Age, 20 years.

Her home is on a 280-acre grain and livestock farm. Is a fourth-year student at University of Illinois, majoring in home economics. Organization experiences: 4-H Club member 9 years, serving as junior leader 6 years, and State leadership representative at National 4-H Club Congress in 1950. Active member of numerous high school, college and church organizations. Speaks some French. Faith: Catholic. Hobbies: Clothing construction, reading and knitting.

BACA, Elfego G., Jr. 505 North Third Street, Belen, New Mexico.
School address: 816 University Street, Las Vegas, New Mexico.
Age, 19 years.

His home is in a town of about 3,000 in an agricultural region. Has spent considerable time on his grandparents' farm. First-year student in New Mexico Highlands University, Las Vegas, New Mexico, majoring in accounting. Organization experience: 4-H Club member. Organized and led a 4-H Club of younger boys. Member of Future Farmers of America and Boy Scouts. Active in high school and community groups. Faith: Catholic. Language: Spanish. Grandparents are Spanish-speaking. Hobbies: Reading, hiking, leathercraft, dramatics, debate, and radio.

BATH, Robert Wayne. R.F.D. #3, Auburn, Nebraska
School address: 1201 J Street, Lincoln, Nebraska
Age, 21 years.

He lives on a 480-acre farm on which diversified farming is carried on, particularly grain and livestock. He is in his third year at the University of Nebraska, majoring in Agricultural Extension. Organization experience: Has been a member in 4-H Club work for 8 years. Averaged 5 completed projects every year, State Blue Ribbon Health winner, exhibited a number of county grand champion baby beef, and awarded Thomas E. Wilson Champion County Meat Producer Award. Active in Future Farmers of America, church and school groups. Member of band and glee club. Faith: Protestant. Hobby: Music.

BLACKHALL, Carol Jean. R.R. 3, Sterling, Kansas.
School address: Reeves Hall, Cottey College, Nevada, Missouri.
Age, 20 years.

Her home is on a 400-acre farm, mainly devoted to dairying and wheat with some pasture and feed land. Second-year student at Cottey Junior College, Nevada, Missouri, majoring in home economics (textiles). Organization activities: 4-H Club member 10 years, carrying projects in dairying, poultry raising, food preparation and preservation, clothing construction. Active in high school, college and church groups. Faith: Protestant. Language: French (2 years at college and friendship with a French girl in college). Hobbies: Sewing and reading.

BOUIC, Miriam Aileen. Route 2, Marysville, Ohio.
School address: 52 East 15th Avenue, Columbus 1, Ohio
Age, 20 years.

Her home is on a 328-acre dairy farm. Third-year student in School of Home Economics, Ohio State University, majoring in home economics extension. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, 4 of these as assistant to the leader. Active in community, church, and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Reading, music, gardening, needlework and folklore.

BYRD, Bobbye Jean. Route 2, Leachville, Arkansas.
Age, 19 years.

Her home is on a 780-acre farm. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H Club member 8 years, serving as president of the County 4-H Council 2 years. Active in school groups and is president of the Senior High School Student Council. Has been a member of the local Future Homemakers of America chapter, serving as president one year. Is State treasurer of the FHA for Arkansas. Faith: Protestant. Hobby: Collect big league baseball players' pictures. Is a member of the High School Camera Club.

CARSON, Ruth Alice. R. R. #1, Cicero, Indiana.
School address: 781 Russell Street, West Lafayette, Indiana.
Age, 21 years.

She lives on a 250-acre farm. She is in her third year at Purdue University, majoring in Home Economics. Her special interest is in nutrition. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H Club member for 9 years, 2 years a leader and 4 as junior leader. Girl Scout member. Member of school band and orchestra, and church choir. Active in church organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Collecting animals, sports, travel and people.

CLARK, Adele Elizabeth. Route 2, Vermillion, South Dakota.
School address: Box 195, Tripp, South Dakota
Age, 24 years.

Her home is on a 180-acre general farm; helps with caring for the thousands of turkeys and chickens, driving the tractor during harvest, and housework. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 11 years, carrying projects in beef cattle raising, clothing construction, and meal planning. Active in church, college, community and musical organizations. Church organist, choir director and soloist in Vermillion for past 7 years. Languages spoken: Swedish, acquired from immigrant grandparents; Spanish and German from academic courses. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Photography, collecting dolls from other countries, and teaching piano.

COWAN, Donna Elaine. 9 South Rural Street, Emporia, Kansas.
School Address: Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia,
Kansas. Age, 20 years.

Her home is on an 80-acre livestock and grain farm. Is a third year student at Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia, majoring in modern languages. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 9 years, carrying projects in food preparation and preservation, clothing construction, and swine raising. Active in high school, church, and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Languages: French, Spanish, some German. Special conversation French work with a French-speaking Belgian student at the college. Hobbies: Square and folk dancing, writing, singing, reading, and languages.

DOSSETT, Sue Olive. Smith Mills, Kentucky. School address:
476 Rose Street, Lexington, Kentucky. Age, 22 years.

Her home is on a 150-acre farm devoted to general farming, 100 acres in corn. Fourth-year student at University of Kentucky, majoring in home economics extension. Organization experience: 4-H Club member. Active in high school, church and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Knitting, needlepoint, sewing, reading, riding, and softball.

DUNLOP, Jane Carleton. West Salisbury, New Hampshire
Post Office: R.F.D. #1, Andover, New Hampshire.
Age, 22 years.

She has lived with her family on a 26-acre poultry farm. Presently she is engaged in practical nursing, specializing in children's cases. She had professional training in this field at Children's Hospital in Boston. Organizational experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, eight of which she also served as junior or senior leader. She is active in church and Grange and has served as Counselor at 4-H Camp two years. In school, was active in drama club and on school newspaper staff. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Crafts, stamp collecting, horse back riding, and 4-H Club work.

ELLIOTT, Betty Jo. Route 1, Box 459, Chico, California.
School address: Chico State College, Chico, California.
Age, 21 years.

She lives on a 100-acre farm where diversified farming is practiced. She is in her fourth year at Chico State College, majoring in music. Organization Experience: Has been a 4-H Club member 11 years and was selected as one of the State honor members (Diamond All-Star) in 1949. Her 4-H projects include food preservation and clothing work, and livestock raising. Has been an active member of high school, church and college organizations. Has been corresponding with a girl in the Netherlands for about 5 years. Speaks Spanish. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Playing pipe organ (is a member of the American Guild of Organists); singing; composing and arranging music for modern dance programs; softball.

ELLIOTT, Elizabeth Ann. Route 2, White City, Kansas.
School address: 303 North 16th Street, Manhattan, Kansas
Age, 19 years.

Her home is on a 640-acre general and livestock farm. Is a 2nd year student at Kansas State College, majoring in home economics and extension work. Organization activities: 4-H Club member 9 years. Participated in high school, and college group activities. Is corresponding secretary of the college UNESCO organization. Has carried on correspondence with girls in the Netherlands and in Japan. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Corresponding with foreign teen-age girls, reading, and collecting picture post cards.

ELSENSOHN, Joan. Pomeroy, Washington.
School address: 765 College Station, Pullman, Washington,
Age, 21 years.

Her home is on a 2800-acre wheat ranch on which some livestock is also kept. Fourth-year student at State College of Washington, majoring in home economics. Is now working half-time as dietitian at one of the food service units on the campus. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, carrying projects in clothing and meal preparation. Has been counselor at the State 4-H Club Camp 3 years. Is a member of the College 4-H Club and a member of the College 4-H Radio Committee. Active in high school and many College organizations. Assisted with the research conducted by the College Department of Nutrition involving basal metabolism tests and is writing a thesis from the findings of the study as a partial requirement for graduation with distinction. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Reading, craft work, menu collecting and sewing.

GEURTZE, John B. 21 Woodridge Road, Delmar, New York.
Age, 22 years.

His home is on a 35-acre poultry and crop farm. Has completed a 2-year course in agriculture, majoring in poultry, at the New York State School of Agriculture. Organization experience: 8 years in 4-H Club work, 4 of these serving as assistant leader or leader. Carried projects in dairying and poultry raising. Was State 4-H poultry champion in 1947. Worked for the Albany County 4-H Club office as a summer assistant during the summer of 1950. Is a member of the local leaders' association. Member of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America and served as president two years. Received the Empire Farmer degree. Faith: Protestant. Language: Some German. Parents are of German descent.

GUICE, Agatha Elizabeth. Box 415, Hendersonville, North Carolina.
School address: 207 Alice Street, Knoxville, Tennessee.
Age, 19 years.

Her home is on a 28-acre orchard and vegetable farm. First-year student at University of Tennessee, majoring in home economics. Earned money for college wardrobe, making most of her school clothing. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 6 years, carrying projects in food preparation and preservation, clothing construction, home management, and dairying, as well as organization responsibilities. Active in farm organizations, church, and community groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Textile painting, fishing and horseback riding.

HARRER, John Wilbert. Route A, Helena, Montana. School
Address: 811 South Willson Street, Bozeman, Montana. Age, 22 years.

---

His home is on a 3000-acre cattle ranch. Graduates from Montana State College, June, 1951. Major, animal industry. Plans to go into ranching on his own when he finishes his education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 11 years. Delegate to National 4-H Club Camp. Exhibited cattle and hogs grown as a 4-H project in Washington, Utah, and International Livestock Exposition in Chicago. Member of college 4-H Club. President of Mu Beta Beta, 4-H honorary Sorority. Active in high school, church, and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Skiing, fishing, hunting, horseback riding, swimming.

HELLER, Jack. Pewee Valley, Kentucky. School Address:
450 Rose Lane, Lexington, Kentucky. Age, 21 years.

---

His home is on a 4½-acre general farm. Third-year student at University of Kentucky, majoring in agriculture. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, junior leader for several years, and president of the State 4-H Club organization. Represented Kentucky at National 4-H Club Camp, Washington, D. C., and National Club Congress Member, Chicago, and treasurer of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America and active in other high school groups. Participated in church and college organizations. Faith: Protestant.

HERR, Donald Edward. Route 1, Lodi, Ohio. New Address:
c/o Robert Martin, Route 1, Hebron, Ohio. Age, 24 years.

---

Home: General livestock farm of 135 acres. Graduates from Ohio State University this spring. Has majored in agronomy. Lived on his father's farm until his army service. Worked on a 1,000-acre beef cattle farm in New York during summer of 1949 and in summer of 1950 was a field inspector for the Ohio Seed Improvement Association. After graduation expects to work on a farm specializing in the production of hybrid seed. Spent 8 months in Okinawa in southwest Pacific during army service. Was in the United States military service 19 months. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 7 years. Active participation in farm organizations, high school and college groups, including the college 4-H club. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Color photography and hunting.

HUENEMAN, Lois L. Route 4, Garner, Iowa. Age, 24 years.

---

Her home is on a farm of 300 acres devoted to grain, livestock, and poultry production. Is a rural school teacher. Has attended Iowa State Teachers College and Waldorf College in Forest City. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 6 years. Member and Officer in Older Youth Club in county. Active participation in high school, church, community, and educational organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: German. Hobbies: Reading, sewing, hiking, horseback riding, tobogganing, and softball.

JOHNSON, Fern. Laketown, Utah
Age, 22 years.

Her home is on a 700-acre farm devoted to growing wheat, wild hay, cattle. Holds a B.S. degree in home economics from Utah State Agricultural College. Majored in clothing, textiles and related arts. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 5 years. Active in high school, church and college groups. Faith: Protestant.

JUNIVER, Barbara J. Cedar Lake Road, North, Branford, Connecticut.
School address: Holcomb Hall, University of Connecticut, Storrs, Conn.
Age, 19 years.

Her home is on a 9-acre farm including poultry and other general farming. Second year in University of Connecticut, majoring in home economics. Organization experience: Officer in the Christian Youth Fellowship; Business manager of senior classbook in high school; member of Spanish Club; Officer in the Connecticut Federation of Rural Youth; County 4-H Fair Association; New Haven County Loyalty Club (older youth); local 4-H president and leader, and membership chairman of University 4-H Club. Language ability: Some Spanish. Hobbies: Correspondence with friends all over the United States and in Europe, and modeling. Faith: Protestant.

KESKE, Eldora Edna. Route 4, Box 167, Milwaukee 14, Wisconsin.
School address: 305 Sixth Street, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin (Teacher)
Age, 23 years.

Her home is on an 80-acre general and dairy farm. Graduated from Milwaukee State Teachers College, 1949, majoring in elementary education. Has been teaching since graduation. Organization activities: 4-H Club member 11 years, 3 of these was junior leader, and is now an adult 4-H leader. Attended many 4-H events. Active in high school, church, and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Language: German (family speaks German). Hobbies: Sports (outdoor and indoor), music, sewing, knitting, and reading.

KLEIN, Glenn Arthur. R.R.#1, Box 7, Aumsville, Oregon
School address: 535 S. 14th Street, Corvallis, Oregon.
Age, 23 years.

His home is on a 60-acre dairy farm which is also equipped with greenhouses. Is a 4th year student at Oregon State College, majoring in agricultural education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member; active in high school and college groups; vice president of the campus 4-H club and the collegiate Future Farmers of America. Spent 1½ years in the U.S. Army. Was counselor several years at the Oregon 4-H Summer School. Helped in supervising 4-H livestock club members who were participating in the Oregon State Fair. Spent the last two summers working on a tourist survey covering all of Oregon. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Tennis, golf and other sports, and flower growing.

LANG, Herbert Charles. Box 124, College, Alaska
School address: Box 124, College, Alaska
Age, 21 years.

His home is in a suburb of Fairbanks, Alaska, for the past 4 years. Has lived on a 100-acre general farm and has worked on farms in New Jersey and Alaska during summers. Fourth-year student at University of Alaska, majoring in animal industry. Organization experience: Employed by YMCA for summer organizational work. Vice-president of University Agriculture Club one year. Treasurer of Associated Students, University of Alaska, one year. Has traveled extensively in the United States, Mexico, eastern and western Canada, and Alaska. Faith: Protestant. Language: Some German. Hobbies: Woodcraft, hunting, camping, gardening, hiking, and skiing.

LILLY, William Steve. Route 1, Nacogdoches, Texas. School
Address: Box 1961, North Gate, College Station, Texas.
Age, 19 years.

---

His home is on a 200-acre dairy farm. Second-year student at Texas A. & M. College Station, Texas, majoring in animal husbandry. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 6 years, serving as president of his local club and president of the county 4-H Council. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Hunting, fishing, and horseback riding.

LITTELL, Rufus Philander, Jr. Heth, Arkansas. School Address:
Hughes High School, Hughes, Arkansas. Age, 18 years.

---

His home is on a 600-acre delta farm devoted chiefly to cotton with some acres in soybeans, corn and pasture. He, himself, raises registered Duroc Jersey hogs. Organization experience: 4-H Club member for 7 years. Is president of the county 4-H Club Council and leader of a 4-H club. Was leadership representative for Texas in 1950. Has been a member of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America 3 years and is president this year. Active in church and community groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobby: Photography.

LIVINGSTON, Wayne Edwin. Route 1, Box 362, Chino, California.
School Address: P. O. Box 1516, San Luis Obispo, California.
Age: 24 years.

---

His home is on a 40-acre farm devoted to production of livestock, general crops, and walnuts. Fourth-year student at California State Polytechnic College, where he is majoring in field crops. Had army overseas service in Korea. Visited Japan. Organization Experience: 4-H Club member 8 years. Active in high school athletic and music groups. Member of a number of college organizations, including 4 years in glee club and this year is a member of the "barber shop" group. Faith: Protestant. Language: Some Spanish. Hobbies: Music and travel.

LOMEN, Ernest Richard. Route 1, Decorah, Iowa. School Address:
Alumni Hall, Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa. Age, 22 years.

---

His home is on a farm of 280-acres where diversified farming is practiced. Third-year student at Iowa State College, majoring in agricultural education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 9 years, carrying livestock production and dairy projects. Delegate to National 4-H Club Congress and National 4-H Club Camp. Member of Future Farmers of America and other high school groups. State, county, and local 4-H Club officer. Active in church, and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Languages: Norwegian and Danish, limited speaking ability. Hobbies: Photography, sports.

LORCH, Eloise. Lincoln Lane, Anchorage, Kentucky. School Address: 185 East Maxwell, Lexington, Kentucky. Age, 20 years.

Her home is in a small town near Louisville, Kentucky, but her family owns and operates a 100-acre farm in Indiana. Third-year student in University of Kentucky, majoring in home economics. Organized a nursery school for children and helped finance her college work with the earnings. Organization experience: Member of a 4-H Club 7 years, serving as president 2 years. Was State home management and State room improvement representative at National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and a junior counselor at 4-H camp. Active in farm, church, community, and college organizations. Employed by the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Association for 3 years. Faith: Protestant. Language: Danish and French. Has had tutoring in Danish for 2 years and has studied French in college. Hobbies: Sewing, playing bridge and canasta, reading, fencing, hockey, knitting, horseback riding, swimming, and singing.

LOWRY, Rhonwyn. Route 2, Moultrie, Georgia. School Address: 564 South Lumpkin Street, Athens, Georgia. Age, 20 years.

---

Her home is on a 75-acre farm devoted to peanuts, cotton and tobacco production. Fourth-year student at University of Georgia, majoring in home economics extension work. Organization experience: 4-H Club member. President of the State master 4-H Club 1 year. Delegate to National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago, Ill., National Citizenship Conference, Washington, D. C. in 1950, and national meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago, Illinois. Active in church and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Folk games and sewing.

LYMAN, Anne. White River Junction, Vermont.
School address: Brownsville, Vermont.
Age, 21 years.

She lives on a 360-acre dairy farm. Graduated from Castleton Teachers College with an Elementary School Teachers Degree and is now employed as a teacher. Organization experience: Has been in 4-H Club work for 8 years. Is a member of Youth Fellowship, and Camp Counselor. Faith: Protestant. Language: High School French. Hobby: Riding horses.

MACDONALD, Lyn Treat. Laurelette Ranch, La Verne, California.
School address: College of Agriculture, University of California,
Davis, California
Age, 20 years.

Her early years were spent in mountain area; now lives on a one-acre farm in the orange-growing district. Is in her third year at the University of California, majoring in animal husbandry. Plans to enter cattle-raising business. Organization experience: Is in her 9th year of 4-H Club work during which she has fed, raised, shown and sold beef steers and registered Polled Herefords for 5 years. Has also carried projects in food preservation, clothing, and home furnishing work, and in leadership of 4-H clubs. Has taken part in high school and college organization activities. Faith: Protestant. Language: A little Spanish and French. Hobbies: Playing bass viol, ice skating, horseback riding, collecting postmarks, photography.

MICHELLI, Aileen Marie. Box 64, Fort Bridger, Wyoming.
Age, 21 years.

Her home is on a 1200-acre ranch operated both as a ranch and as a farm. Has been a 4-H Club member 11 years, with livestock, clothing and foods projects. Has cared for 27 beef animals, showing her calves at 38 fairs, round-ups and stock shows. Participated in a number of activities while in high school. Has had two years at the University of Wyoming, taking a liberal arts course. Language: Understands some Italian - mother was born in Italy and father is of Austrian parentage. Faith: Catholic. Hobbies: Softball, horseback riding, and reading.

MILLER, Shirley Etta. 8200 West 10th Avenue, Lakewood 15, Colorado.
School address: Apartment 107, Lory Hall, 705 South Washington Street, Fort Collins, Colorado.
Age, 20 years.

Her home is in a suburb of Denver 5-acre farm with small truck garden and fruit orchard. Second-year student at Colorado A. & M. College, majoring in vocational home economics, commercial foods and nutrition. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 9 years, 5 of these as junior leader, and was a member of the County 4-H Council 4 years. Was a delegate to the National 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C. Has carried 4-H projects in dairying, beef cattle, food preparation, and clothing. Has been active in community, church and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Square dancing, basketball and all outdoor sports, traveling and dramatics.

MOODY, Viva Leola. R. R. 1, Erie, Illinois. School Address:
405 E. John Street, Champaign, Illinois. Age, 21 years.

---

Her home is on a 160-acre grain and livestock farm. Is a third-year student at University of Illinois, majoring in vocational home economics. Organizational experiences: 10 years in 4-H Club work, 4 of these as junior leader. Projects included clothing, foods preparation, baby beef and poultry raising, and Room Improvement. Has helped in the fields during busy seasons on the farm and with the family garden and chicken flocks. Active in a number of high school, college and church organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Square dancing, bicycling, piano playing and textile painting.

MOWRY, Marilyn Jean. Saratoga, Wyoming. School Address:
Kappa Delta Sorority, 605 Grand, University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming. Age, 20 years.

---

She lives on her parents' 2500-acre ranch where beef cattle are grown. Is a 2nd year student at University of Wyoming, majoring in home economics. Completed 8 years of 4-H Club work, carrying on projects in clothing, foods and canning work, in livestock and in tractor care and maintenance. Has been a voluntary local leader of a 4-H Club. Was reporter for a local newspaper one summer, has driven a power rake in the hay fields of the family's ranch for 3 years and a tractor for 5 years. Has ridden horseback for cattle, helped with ranch cooking when at home and did a large portion of the cooking for a crew of 12 men during one haying season. Has been a member of many high school, college and church organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: Slight knowledge of French. Hobbies: Music, sports, public speaking, dramatics, and reading.

MUELLER, Rosalie Marie. Box 397, Chinook, Montana. Work
Address: County Extension Office, Sidney, Montana. Employed as home demonstration agent-at-large. Age, 23 years.

---

Her home is on a 3000-acre farm devoted to dry-land wheat growing, cattle raising, sugar-beet growing. During World War II she and her sisters did much of the farm labor. Spent one summer working in a camp for underprivileged children of Denver, Colorado. Graduated from Montana State College, June, 1950, majoring in home economics extension. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 11 years, 5 of these served as assistant leader. Delegate to National 4-H Club Camp, and was twice a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress. Was a Girl Scout. Active in church, farm, and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: German, especially Low German, which is spoken in her family. Hobbies: Crafts, folk dances, folk songs, folk designs and costumes, and foods of other countries.

OLSON, Burton Paul. Route 2, Box 112, Westby, Wisconsin. Age, 25 years.
School address: 432 North Lake Street, Madison, Wisconsin.

---

His home is on a 175-acre dairy and tobacco farm. 4th year student at University of Wisconsin, majoring in dairy husbandry and agricultural extension. Organization experiences: 4-H Club member 11 years, and leader of a club for 3 years. Delegate to National 4-H Club Congress and National 4-H Club Camp. Active in many college groups, music, and church organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: Norwegian (brought up in Norwegian family and community and studied Norwegian in college). Hobbies: Singing, leading group singing, flying, and putting on shows.

PRAWL, Warren Leslie. Box 78, Severance, Kansas.
School address: 1437 LeGore Street, Manhattan, Kansas.
Age, 20 years.

His home is on a 160-acre diversified and livestock farm. Second-year student at Kansas State College, majoring in agricultural education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 8 years, carrying projects in livestock raising, corn growing, and leadership. Active participation in high school, college, and community groups. Worked during summer vacation with young men from Iceland, Switzerland, and the Netherlands. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Photography, wrestling, and target shooting.

PRESSLY, William Francis. Route 1, Stony Point, North Carolina.
School address: Erskin College, Due West, South Carolina.
Age, 19 years.

His home is on a 300-acre dairy farm. First-year student at Erskin College, Due West, South Carolina. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 9 years. Delegate to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and to Breton Woods, New Hampshire, to speak in interest of 4-H Club work before Plant Food Council. Active in many State 4-H events. Member of the Future Farmers of America and president of his school chapter 3 years. Active in high school, church, and farm organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: One year of college Spanish. Hobbies: Sports.

RENDELL, George Donald. Route 5, box 275, Riverside, California.
School Address: Terracina Drive, Riverside College, Riverside,
California. Age, 19 years.

---

His home is on a 20-acre diversified farm. Is in his first year at Riverside College, Riverside, California, majoring in economics. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H Club member 7 years, has served as junior leader 4 years and as president of the county seniors council 2 years. Has been an active member of high school, church and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Music and gardening.

RIDLEY, Mary Jo. Beaver Dam, Kentucky. School Address:
476 Rose Street, Lexington, Kentucky. Age, 21 years.

---

Her home is in a town of about 1,000 in a rural area. Father owns a 263-acre livestock farm on which she has spent summers and week-ends. Has driven a team of horses, tractor, and automobile. Fourth-year student at University of Kentucky, majoring in home economics. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 12 years. Represented Kentucky at National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Active in high school, church, community, and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Meeting people and re-finishing furniture.

SAMENDINGER, Helen. Foxden Farm, Route 3, Newark, Delaware.
Age, 19 years.

---

Her home is on a 200-acre farm devoted to dairying. Family has 100 pure-bred, registered Guernseys. Has helped on the farm all her life. Second-year student at University of Delaware, majoring in animal industry. Organization experience: 4-H Club member. Has been secretary and song leader of her club. Active in high school groups, including Future Homemakers of America. Participated in church, farm, community, and college organizations. Is Link member - honorary Delaware 4-H organization for outstanding older club members. Faith: Protestant. Language: Speaks German. Parents are from Germany. Hobbies: Listening to classical music, playing the piano, reading, keeping a scrapbook; collecting animal pictures, tennis, badminton, walking and baking cakes.

SCHRADER, Ardis Muriel. Route 1, Dundas, Minnesota. School
Address: St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota. Age 21 years.

---

Her home is on a farm of 312-acres where general farming is practiced. Third year student at St. Olaf College, majoring in English and German education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 11 years, carrying home economics projects. Active participation in high school, community, church, and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Languages: Speaks German and French. Hobbies: Sewing, cooking, reading, painting, and photography.

SCOTT, George Everly. Route 3, Box 553, Fort Collins,
Colorado. School Address: Colorado A. & M. College, Fort
Collins, Colorado. Age, 24 years.

---

His home is on an 87-acre, irrigated farm devoted to growing small grain, alfalfa, pasture, and livestock. Worked one summer for the United States Forest Service in range area. Organization experience: Member of a 4-H Club 7 years, leader of a 4-H Club 5 years. President of the Larimer County 4-H federation. Twice a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago and member of a soil conservation tour of New Mexico and Arizona. Was a member of the Boy Scouts. Active in farm organizations, church, and college groups. President of the student body at Colorado A. & M. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Hiking, horseback riding, tennis, basketball, and square dancing.

SINGER, Jean Miller. Route 2, Manheim, Pennsylvania. School
Address: Day Students' Rooms, State Teachers College, West
Chester, Pennsylvania. Age, 20 years.

---

Her home is on a 20-acre farm. Second-year student at West Chester State Teachers College, majoring in music education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, carrying poultry, clothing, foods, corn, and garden growing projects. Delegate from Pennsylvania to the National 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C. Faith: protestant. Language: Some German, some French. Hobbies: Music and poultry.

STEERE, Gloria Jean. Box 451, Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts.
Address: 8 Edgehill Drive, Alexandria, Virginia. Age, 19 years.

---

Her home is on a farm of 75 acres devoted to truck gardening and dairying. Organization experience: 4-H Club member, president of the Club for two years. Delegate to the National 4-H Club Camp, Washington, D. C. Has been active in school plays, in student council and press club and church as Sunday school teacher and choir member. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Knitting, sewing, and reading.

STENCEL, Kathryn Louise. Route 3, Ionia, Michigan. School
Address: 307 Abbot Road, East Lansing, Michigan. Age, 21 years.

---

Her home is on a 160-acre dairy farm. Grew up on the farm with 11 younger brothers and sisters. Helped with farm work as well as in the home. Third-year student at Michigan State College of Agriculture and Applied Science, majoring in German. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 8 years, including several years as local leader. Member of the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, serving as secretary 2 years and president 1 year. Active in church, farm, and college organizations. Is vice-president of the German Club in college. Faith: Protestant. Language: German. Hobbies: Getting to know many people, reading, writing letters, and sports.

TALBOTT, Dorothy Jean. Route 2, Belington, West Virginia.
School Address: Box 1875, Berea College, Berea, Kentucky.
Age, 23 years.

---

Her home is on a 225-acre farm where general diversified farming is practiced. Fourth-year student at Berea College, Berea, Kentucky, majoring in Home Economics. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 10 years, 2 years as leader of a club. Active in church, and college groups. Worked as a camp counselor in an inter-racial camp for underprivileged children. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Folk dancing, collecting folk-dance records, collecting poems and photographs.

TAYLOR, Minnie Mae. Route 3, Russellville, Kentucky. School
Address: College Station, Murray, Kentucky. Age, 20 years.

---

Her home is on a 250-acre farm devoted to dairying, grain, and tobacco production. Is a first-year student at Murray State College, Murray, Kentucky, majoring in nursing education. Organization experience: 4-H Club member 6 years, carrying projects in canning, clothing, room improvement and poultry production. Held a number of offices in her club and was a member of the County 4-H Council 3 years. Member of the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America which she helped organize and was district delegate to the national convention of the FHA's. Active in church, school and college groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Collecting scrap-book materials, photographs and earrings.

VANSKIKE, Dorothy Ann. Route 2, Arkansas City, Kansas.
School Address: 1436 Laramie Street, Manhattan, Kansas.
Age, 20 years.

---

Her home is on a 200-acre farm where general farming is practiced. Third year student at Kansas State College of Agriculture and applied Science, majoring in home economics and extension work. Organization activities: 4-H Club member for 9 years, holding a number of offices, including that of delegate from her club to the UNESCO organization in her county. Her club has made the UNESCO program one of its projects. Active in high school, college, and church groups. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Reading, sewing, cooking, swimming, and horseback riding.

WARRICK, Harvey Keith. Route 5, Greenville, Ohio. School
Address: 144 East 14th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio. Age, 21 years.

---

His home is on a dairy and general crops farm of 520 acres. Third-year student in College of Agriculture, Ohio State University, majoring in agricultural economics. Organization experience: Participated in FFA and other high school groups, farm organizations, church and college organizations. Faith: Protestant. Language: A little German. Is living with a German family. Hobbies: Folk games history, flower arrangements, seed and weed seed identification.

WEISS, Elwyn Clair. R. R. #1, Howe, Indiana
School address: 237 South Grant Street, West Lafayette, Indiana.
Age, 23 years.

He lives on a 160-acre general farm. He is in third year at Purdue University, majoring in Vocational Agriculture. Visited Japan while in the United States Army. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H Club member for 9 years. Has been a leader in Tractor Maintenance, Better Methods and Township Adult Leader. Belongs to 4-H Club at Purdue. Member of County Rural Youth Group for 3 years. Active in church. Faith: Protestant. Language: Some Japanese. Hobbies: Photography, writing and hobby shop.

WHITAKER, Billy Roy. Route 3, Carthage, Texas
School address: Panola Junior College, Carthage, Texas.
Age, 18 years.

His home is on a 100-acre livestock farm. First-year student at Panola Junior College, Carthage, Texas, majoring in agriculture. Organization experience: 4-H Club member. President of his club and a member of the County 4-H Club Council. Member and vice-president of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Active in church and community organizations. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Calf roping, riding, fishing and photography.

WILLARD, Jean. Route 1, Box 505, Red Bluff, California.

School Address: South Hall, UCCA Student Store, Davis, California. Age, 19 years.

---

Her home is on a 5,000-acre farm devoted to raising sheep, cattle and grain. Is a second-year student in the University of California College of Agriculture, majoring in agricultural education. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H Club member 7 years, giving special attention to clothing and agricultural projects and to junior leadership. Has been active in high school, and college organizations. Language: High school Spanish. Faith: Protestant. Hobbies: Attending livestock shows and sales; exhibiting at county fairs; collecting wild flowers; photography; keeping scrapbooks on 4-H and Future Farmers of America (vocational high school organization); keeping a scrapbook on articles about ranchers, ranches.

WILLIAMS, James Esco. RFD #1, Summit, Mississippi. School Address: Box 962, Clinton, Mississippi. Age: 25.

---

His home is on a 365 acre dairy and seed farm. He is in his third year at Mississippi College majoring in Sociology. Organization experience: Has been a 4-H member 9 years, serving as president three years and active in showing and judging dairy animals. Has been an active church member, Boy Scout, and member of the Farm Bureau. He participated in basketball and football in both high school and college. He has spent over two years in the United States Navy. Faith: Protestant.

WILSON, Franklin Claude. Churchville, Virginia.
Age 24 years.

He was reared on a 162-acre dairy farm which he and his mother now manage. Attended vocational high school and is a graduate from Bridgewater College, (Virginia), where he majored in social science and history. Has spent 14 months in active duty in the U. S. Navy. Organization experience: Was a 4-H Club member 9 years, has served as leader of a 4-H Club, assisted with 4-H Camp activities and other county-wide 4-H programs. Was made a member of the 4-H All Stars, a honorary club organization in Virginia and other States. Was a Boy Scout 4 years and served a Scoutmaster. Has taken an active part in church programs. Participated in discussion groups in college. Faith: Protestant. Language: College French. Hobbies: Horseback riding, baseball, and other sports.

